Event Overview:

The 'Training Programme on ICMR National Ethical Guidelines 2017 and NDCT Rules 2019' was organized by the Institutional Ethics Committee at Symbiosis College of Nursing, Pune, in collaboration with Symbiosis International (Deemed University). This online training program aimed to provide valuable insights into the ethical guidelines governing medical research and the rules related to new drugs and clinical trials.

Speakers:

1. Dr. Raman Gangakhedkar: Distinguished Professor, Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, Symbiosis International (Deemed University), Pune & Dr. C.G. Pandit National Chair, Indian Council of Medical Research.
2. Dr. Ravindra Ghooi: Director, Scientia Clinical Services.
3. Dr. Sonopant Joshi: Director, Symbiosis College of Nursing, Pune & Member Secretary, Institutional Ethics Committee, SIU.

1. Session I: ICMR National Ethical Guidelines 2017 (including Q&A session): Dr. Raman Gangakhedkar

Timing: 9:15 AM to 10:45 AM

The training program commenced with an informative and engaging session on the ICMR National Ethical Guidelines 2017, led by the esteemed speaker, Dr. Raman Gangakhedkar. This session provided participants with a comprehensive understanding of the ethical guidelines that govern medical and clinical research in India. Dr. Gangakhedkar's expertise and in-depth knowledge were evident throughout his presentation, making it an enriching experience for all attendees.

The Q&A session that followed allowed participants to seek clarifications and delve deeper into specific aspects of the guidelines. This interactive segment fostered a conducive learning environment and enabled participants to gain practical insights into the application of ethical principles in research.

2. Address by Dr. Rajiv Yeravdekar (Provost, FoMHS, SIU)

Timing: 10:45 AM to 11:00 AM

Following the informative session on ethical guidelines, Dr. Rajiv Yeravdekar, the Provost of the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences at SIU, delivered a noteworthy address. Dr. Yeravdekar's speech highlighted the importance of ethics in medical research and its critical role in ensuring the safety and well-being of research participants.

Hill Base, Lavale, Pune - 412 115

His address served as a bridge between the technical content of the program and the broader ethical considerations, emphasizing the institution's commitment to upholding the highest ethical standards in research.

3. Tea Break

Timing: 11:00 AM to 11:15 AM

A well-deserved tea break followed Dr. Yeravdekar's address, allowing participants to refresh and network with their peers. This interlude also provided an opportunity for informal discussions and the exchange of ideas among attendees.

4. Session II: New Drugs and Clinical Trials Rules 2019 (including Q&A session): Dr. Ravindra Ghooi

Timing: 11:15 AM to 12:45 PM

The training program continued with an enlightening session on the New Drugs and Clinical Trials Rules 2019, presented by Dr. Ravindra Ghooi, a distinguished expert in the field. Dr. Ghooi's session delved into the regulatory framework governing the development and testing of new drugs, providing attendees with a clear understanding of the rules and regulations that shape this critical aspect of healthcare research.

The subsequent Q&A session allowed participants to seek further clarification on the intricacies of clinical trials and regulations, enhancing their knowledge and facilitating compliance with ethical and legal requirements.

5. Session III: Overview and Functioning of Ethics Committees: Dr. Sonopant Joshi

Timing: 12:45 PM to 1:00 PM

Dr. Sonopant Joshi, the Director of Symbiosis College of Nursing and Member Secretary of the Institutional Ethics Committee at SIU, conducted the final session of the training program. His presentation offered an insightful overview of the role and functioning of ethics committees in the context of research ethics. Dr. Joshi's expertise shed light on the critical role these committees play in ensuring ethical research practices and safeguarding the rights and well-being of research participants.

6. Vote of Thanks & Feedback (Online)

Timing: 1:00 PM to 1:15 PM

The program concluded with a vote of thanks from Mrs. Manisha Mistry, (Asst. prof. – SCON) to all participants, speakers, and organizers for their valuable contributions to the training program. Participants were encouraged to provide feedback online, enabling organizers to further enhance future training initiatives.

In summary, the training program's agenda covered a wide spectrum of topics related to research ethics and regulations, offering a valuable learning experience for all participants. The diverse range of sessions, expert speakers, and interactive Q&A segments ensured that attendees gained practical knowledge and insights to apply in their research endeavours. The event successfully fulfilled its objectives of promoting ethical research practices and fostering a deeper understanding of the regulatory landscape within the medical and healthcare research community.

Certificates:

An online certificate was offered to all delegates upon successful completion of the training program. Certificates were issued only after the submission of feedback and payment of the registration fees.

Event Highlights:

The training program was a resounding success, with participants gaining a comprehensive understanding of the ethical guidelines and regulations governing medical research in India. The insightful presentations by renowned speakers such as Dr. Raman Gangakhedkar and Dr. Ravindra Ghooi provided valuable insights into the subject matter. Dr. Sonopant Joshi's session on the functioning of ethics committees was particularly informative for those involved in research ethics.

The program not only facilitated learning but also encouraged interaction through the Q&A sessions and the feedback collection at the end. The online format allowed participants from diverse locations to attend and benefit from the training.

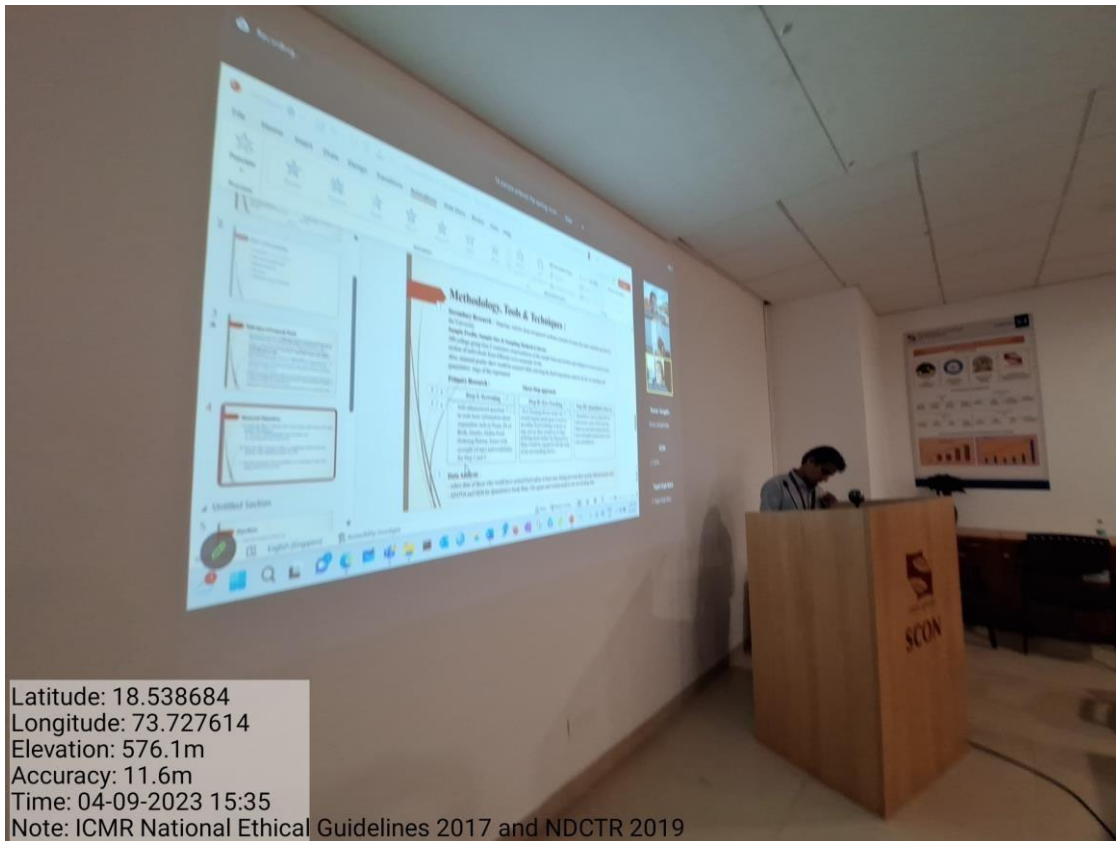

In conclusion, the 'Training Programme on ICMR National Ethical Guidelines 2017 and NDCT Rules 2019' was a significant and informative event that contributed to the professional development of participants and promoted ethical research practices in the field of healthcare and clinical trials.
